

Leave Policy

WEF: Feb 1,2026

1.0 Purpose

This Policy shall define the leave entitlement over and above the public holidays as per the governing statutes, along with the rules & regulations for availing the leaves.

2.0 Scope

Leave policy is applicable to all full time employees. The policy sets out the various types of leaves for different situations like a vacation, sickness, maternity, grief, etc. It specifies rules for various aspects like granting of leave, eligibility, availing, encashment, etc.

3.0 Process to Avail Leaves

- To avail any type of entitled leave, the employee must talk to his/her respective Line Manager to take consent.
- The employee should update the relevant stakeholders on the leave dates along with the emergency contact number during the leave period.
- All leaves should be applied or recorded in the HRMS tool and the approval from the Line Manager should be taken prior to availing the leaves except for sick leaves.
- For planned long leaves, keeping the respective HRBP in loop will be preferable.
- The type of leave should be picked up appropriately while applying in HRMS tool.
- Any leave request exceeding 5 days will require HRBP approval.

4.0 Entitlement

- The leaves shall be calculated based on the date of joining Wissen Technology.
- The leaves shall be allocated based on financial year.
- The employee shall be entitled for the set of leaves on pro-rata basis.
- During the probation period, employee shall be entitled to 1.5 days of SL and CL which will be credited on accrual basis.
- On confirmation though the employee shall receive the leave credit / entitlement of EL from the date of joining.
- Every employee shall be entitled for 25 leaves in a financial year, the split of which shall be 13 Earned leaves, 6 Casual leaves and 6 Sick leaves.
- Only the SL and CL will be credited bi-annually while EL shall be credited monthly.

5.0 Leave Accumulation & Carry Forward

- At the end of every financial year, a maximum of 10 days of unused Earned Leave (EL) out of the total 13 days can be carried forward to the next financial year. Any balance beyond 10 days will lapse.
- The maximum leave accumulation limit during an employee's tenure at Wissen Technology will be 45 days.
- Only Earned Leave (EL) can be carried forward to the next financial year. Casual Leave (CL) and Sick Leave (SL) cannot be carried forward.
- Any accrued Earned Leave exceeding the limit of 45 days will automatically lapse.

6.0 Leave Encashment

- During the employment, the accumulated earned leaves will not be encashed.
- The accumulated earned leaves will be encashed only during separation, which shall be part of the F&F calculations.
- The maximum limit for accumulation and encashment upon separation will be 45 days.
- The basic salary shall be considered for leave encashment calculations.

7.0 Leave Calculations

- The leaves for the year shall be calculated on basis of the joining date.
- Earned leaves shall be credited on a monthly basis, while SL and CL will be credited bi-annually.
- For confirmed employees 3 days of Casual Leave (CL) and 3 days of Sick Leave (SL) shall be credited on 1st April (for the period April to September) and on 1st October (for the period October to March). Employees who join after these dates will receive a prorated leave credit based on their joining date. Leave eligibility will also be prorated accordingly. If an employee leaves the organization during the period, any excess leave taken beyond their prorated entitlement will be recovered. An employee joining on or between 1st to 15th of every month shall get credit of the leaves for the month.
- Employees joining on or after 15th of every month shall not be entitled to leave credit for that month.
- Weekends and holidays lying between paid leaves be it EL, CL, SL will not be counted as leaves.
- The unpaid leaves & unauthorised leaves calculation shall include weekend and holidays too. Weekends and holidays lying between unpaid leaves and unauthorised leaves shall be treated as leaves.
- Taking leave during the probation period is strongly discouraged. While leave entitlements (CL and SL) do accrue during this time, employees are allowed to take a maximum of 1.5 days each of Casual Leave (CL) and Sick Leave (SL). However, the total leave taken must not exceed the maximum leave that has accrued during that period based on the employee's Date of Joining.

8.0 Unauthorized Leaves

- Leaves availed without appropriate notification and approval shall be termed as unauthorised leaves.
- For any kind of emergency or personal exigencies, at least a call or an email to the line manager with a copy to respective HRBP is required.
- Unauthorized leaves shall result in disciplinary action.
- The count of Unauthorised leave availed shall be deducted from the accrued earned leaves. In case of insufficient EL or no EL balance, the unauthorized leaves shall be accounted as unpaid leaves.

9.0 Types of Leave Entitlement

- Earned Leave
- Casual leave
- Sick Leave
- Maternity Leave
- Paternity Leave
- Bereavement Leave
- Unpaid Leaves /Leave without Pay

Earned Leaves:

- Earned Leaves are given to employees to maintain a work life balance during work tenure.
- The Earned Leaves should be availed to take time off for vacation and/or to manage personal commitments that require them to be away from work.
- For vacations or long leave plans, the employee is required to notify and take approval from the Line Manager for the leaves 1 month prior to the leave dates with a copy to the respective HRBP.
- Appropriate handholding and shadowing should be planned by the employee along with the respective Line Manager & stake holders (Wissen and Client) to cover these days.

Casual Leaves:

- Casual Leave is meant to meet special, unforeseen circumstances and emergencies.
- Casual leaves can be availed for either half day or full day.
- Notifying and taking approval from Line Manager will be required.

Sick Leaves:

- Sick Leaves are meant for medical reasons for self only.
- The employee is expected to be medically fit during the employment but for minor mishaps and seasonal illness the set of Sick Leaves can be availed.
- It is understood that these are unforeseen situations and application in advance will never be expected.
- Nevertheless, a phone call, text / WhatsApp message or an email should be sent to the Line Manager.
- For more than 3 days of SL, the employee will have to submit a medical certificate and supporting documents.

Maternity Leaves:

Female employees will be entitled to these set of leaves only if they have worked in the establishment for a period not less than eighty days in the twelve months excluding the paid and unpaid leaves. This leave has provision for biological mothers, adopting mothers and also extends cover to women in the unfortunate event of miscarriages. To avail the maternity leave, 8 weeks prior to the due date, the doctor's certificate needs to be submitted eventually followed by baby's date of birth proof as a supporting document.

- The Maternity Leave will be for 26 weeks of continuous leaves for the first two instances of childbirth.
- It can commence on any date up to 8 weeks prior to expected date of childbirth and would conclude after the total period of 26 continuous weeks.
- There is no provision of encashment or carry forward of Maternity Leave during the year.
- Adopting mother shall also be eligible for 12 weeks of Maternity Leave from the date of adoption applicable for baby below 3 months of age.
- Female employees will be entitled to paid leave for 6 weeks immediately following the day of her miscarriage. The employee will be required to submit the proof for miscarriage, but wilful termination of pregnancy (abortion) is excluded.

- Expecting female employees should inform the stake holders and take approval from the Line Manager, 4 months prior to the expected due date. This shall give the Manager and stake holders considerable time to plan the work schedule and find the replacement for the upcoming 26 weeks leave.
- Employees are expected to resume work, beyond the prescribed duration as per maternity act.

Paternity Leaves:

Male employees will be entitled to these set of leaves only if they have worked in the establishment for a period not less than eighty days in the twelve months excluding the paid and unpaid leaves, preceding the expected date of delivery of child. This benefit shall be extended to both biological as well as adopting fathers.

- The Paternity Leave will be for 5 days for the first two instances of childbirth.
- The paternity leaves can be availed anytime within 56 days from the birth of child.
- This leave should be availed at stretch, these cannot be availed in breaks / splits.
- These leave if not availed shall lapse after 56 days of childbirth and carries no provision for encashment.
- Employee needs to ensure that appropriate notification is given to stake holders, and he receives an approval from the Line Manager 1 month prior to the expected due date.

Bereavement Leaves:

- Provision for bereavement leave is to get time away from work to grieve for the unfortunate death in the direct family.
- Direct family would mean parents, siblings, spouse and children.
- An email to be sent to HR and Line Manager declaring the name, relation of the bereaved family member and date of bereavement.
- In addition to the paid leaves, one shall have the scope of availing 3 days as bereavement leave in a financial year.
- These leaves shall lapse and will be allotted only for immediate 3 days from the day of the death.
- Appropriate notification to the Line Manager and HR should be given while availing this leave.
- Any additional set of leave availed during that span will be deducted from EL/CL leaves.

Unpaid Leaves /Leave Without Pay:

- Leaves availed beyond the entitled SL or CL during probation will be unpaid leaves.
- Leaves availed beyond the eligibility limit in a given financial year will be marked and calculated as Unpaid or Leave without Pay.
- The set of unpaid leaves in a particular month shall be immediately deducted from the following payroll.

Leaves during resignation period:

- Leaves during the notice period are generally not permitted except in case of emergencies, to ensure proper handover and knowledge transfer. Any leave during notice period requires prior approval from the Reporting Manager and HRBP, and the notice period may be extended based on project or business needs. Employees are expected to maintain professional conduct and comply with all company policies until their last working day.

Disclaimer: The company reserves the right to modify this leave policy at any time without intimation subject to statutory guidelines and procedural changes in the company.